SHERIFF BELLOTTI HOSTS FIRST ANNUAL LEADERSHIP AWARDS DINNER

Norfolk County Sheriff Michael G. Bellotti recently hosted the first annual Leadership Awards Dinner where he honored seven young individuals who attended the 2017 Youth Leadership Academy.

"We were pleased to honor these bright young individuals who have excelled in their communities," Sheriff Bellotti said. "Each recipient has taken the skills they acquired from the academy and applied them to their daily life.

"They exemplified standing up to bullying, gaining more confidence in daily life advocating for themselves, helping their community and helping others," Sheriff Bellotti added. "And we appreciate the efforts by these young leaders."
